

Westside News

WEDNESDAY, JULY 2, 2014

Going the country mile

A SHERWOOD butcher is getting creative to meet customer demand. Sherwood Rd Organic Meats has started a free home delivery service, and Amy Tiller said even vegetarians were lining up for the old-fashioned service. Ms Tiller, whose family owns the business, said customers were conscious about where their meat came from. She said produce was sourced from their family farm at Roma. Do you know a business that's going the extra mile? Email editorial@westsidenews.com.au

