Amy delivers fresh lamb straight to table

ALANA SCOTT
scotta@qst.news1td.com.au

Sinnamon Park's Amy Tiller sells the Dorper lamb which is produced on organic pasture at her family's farm.

Ms Tiller said product packages were sold in boxes and could be delivered to Brisbane metropolitan areas as well as the Sunshine and Gold Coasts.

She said the business sold two products - the half lamb and full lamb, which included garlic and rosemary mince sausages, racks of lamb, lamb shanks and lamb cutlets with the next delivery date set for June 7.

"In the full lamb we have a few extra things such as neck chops, spare ribs which are great for marinating and offal which people either love or hate," she said.

BUY DIRECT: Siwa Fresh's Amy Tiller is selling Dorper lamb (inset), which has been produced on her family's Roma farm.

"The half box is $150 plus a delivery fee of $20 and the full box costs $290 plus delivery."

Ms Tiller said the lamb products provided a great opportunity for people to support local farmers as well as to enjoy fresh, tender Dorper cuts.
